

World Book Day 2023

For world book day, all of the children designed their own T-shirt based on their favourite book or author. The children worked extremely hard on their designs and proudly showed off their creations to their friends throughout the day.

The children were also given the opportunity to share their favourite book with children from another class in our paired class project. This gave children to opportunity to read to each other and to hear which books their peers recommended.

