News, Messages, Reminders! Week beginning Mon 7th Feb

Phonics Meeting for Parents/Carers: Monday 7th February

A reminder for parents in Reception Year 1 and Year 2 that our parents phonics and reading session is at 9am on Monday morning. This is an informal session so that we can talk through our new phonics scheme and how you can support your child at home. We would really appreciate as many parents as possible attending.

Reception PE Lessons

Just a reminder that Reception have PE on Tuesday so please could a suitable kit be brought to school.

This week is National Children's Mental Health Week

This week (7-11th Feb) is the annual Children's Mental Health Week, and we will be planning some activities across school to help children think about well-being topics based around how to stay healthy. Andy Corrigan, the school's Mental Health Practitioner is leading a "Five Ways To Wellbeing Workshop" with some of our older children, teachers will be planning activities linked to our Jigsaw PSHE Programme and Mrs Russell will be leading a whole school assembly. All of these activities will help our children in finding ways to understand their emotions and in ways to make and maintain positive relationships with one another.

Early Years Superhero day

On Wednesday 9th February children in Early Years can come to school dressed as a superhero for the day and they will be taking part in lots of fun activities throughout the day.

Dates for your Diary

- Wednesday 9th February - Early Year's Superhero dress-up day
