News, Messages, Reminders! Week beginning Mon 7th March

Home Reading

A message from Mr McAnaney - "We are concerned that some children are not reading at home, and are not bringing their reading books into school every day. Please can parents/carers support your child by reading with them at home regularly (or encouraging older children to read themselves), by signing your child's Home Reading Record Book, & by making sure reading books are brought in every day. We are launching a special Reading Award to encourage this - look out for a letter next week. Thankyou"

World Book Day

On Friday 11th March, we celebrate World Book Day where each child from Reception to Y6 will design and decorate a T-shirt in school with their favourite books, characters or quotes. The day will be full of reading activities, poetry lessons and will be a day of sharing a love of reading.

Little Butterflies and Nursery celebrate in Pyjamas!

Nursery children are celebrating World Book Day with a Bedtime story theme. The children can come to nursery on Friday in their pyjamas, dressing gown and slippers. The day will include activities around reading and lots of stories. Children will also need outdoor shoes and coat for their outdoor learning.

Road Safety for Y1

On the morning of Wednesday 13th March, Y1 children are taking part in a Road Safety workshop teaching them how to keep safe when out and about near roads and traffic. Children will need suitable pair of shoes and a coat.

Change of classes for Swimming lessons

This week will be Miss McLoughlin's class who are going swimming, children will need a swimming costume and towel. Miss Muldowney's class will need their PE Kit instead of their swimming kit.
